MINSKOFF THEATRE

CELEBRATING JIMMY NEDERLANDER

James M. Nederlander “Jimmy,” Chairman of The Nederlander Organization, was the visionary theatrical impresario who built one of the largest private live entertainment companies in the world known for producing and presenting world-class entertainment.

Jimmy started working in the theatre at age 7 sweeping floors for his father, David Tobias (D.T.) Nederlander, in Detroit, Michigan. During a career that spanned over 70 years, Jimmy amassed a network of premier legitimate theatres including nine on Broadway: the Lena Horne, Gershwin, Lunt-Fontanne, Marquis, Minskoff, Nederlander, Neil Simon, Richard Rodgers, and the world famous Palace; in Los Angeles: The Pantages; in London: the Adelphi, Aldwych, and Dominion; and in Chicago: the Auditorium, Broadway Playhouse, Cadillac Palace, and CIBC Theatres, and the Oriental Theatre which in 2019 was renamed the James M. Nederlander Theatre in Jimmy’s honor.

He produced over one hundred acclaimed Broadway musicals and plays including Annie, Applause, La Cage aux Folles, Les Liaisons Dangereuses, Copenhagen, Me and My Girl, Nine, Noises Off, Peter Pan, Sweet Charity, The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby, The Will Rogers Follies, Woman of the Year, and many more.

“Generous,” “loyal” and “trusted” are just a few of the accolades his friends use to describe him. Jimmy was beloved by the industry and the recipient of many distinguished honors including an Honorary Doctorate of Fine Arts from the University of Connecticut (2014), the Exploring the Arts Foundation Award (2014), the United Nations Foundation Champion Award (2012), The Broadway League’s Schoenfeld Vision for Arts Education Award (2011), the New York Pop’s Man of the Year (2008), and the special Tony Award for Lifetime Achievement (2004). To mark the Nederlanders’ centennial in 2012, The New York Landmarks Conservancy proclaimed Jimmy to be a “Living Landmark.”

The National High School Musical Theatre Awards is called the Jimmy Awards in celebration of his career-long dedication to supporting young talent.

Dear Papa...

We are so proud to

THE National High School Musical Theatre Awards JIMMY AWARDS®

The Jimmy Awards®/National High School Musical Theatre Awards® (NHSMTA) is a celebration of outstanding achievement in vocal, dance and acting performance, developed to elevate the profile of in-school arts education across America, provide college scholarships, and create pathways connecting promising young performers to the professional theatre industry. To qualify for the national program, students in local high school musicals are adjudicated and subsequently selected as representatives of regional awards competitions presented by Broadway League member touring venues across the country. Each year, more than 140,000 students participate in these annual events. The program was founded in 2009 by Pittsburgh CLO, Executive Producer Van Kaplan; and Nederlander Alliances LLC, President James L. Nederlander and Founding Executive Director Susan Lee. It is produced annually by The Broadway League Foundation and Pittsburgh CLO. Named in honor of James M. Nederlander, the late legendary Broadway producer and theatre owner, The Jimmy Awards are supported by many leading theatre industry organizations.

2023 JIMMY AWARDS® HOST

A versatile and accomplished individual, Corbin Bleu comes from an extensive background in film, television, and theatre. The 32-year-old has established himself as an actor, singer/songwriter, dancer, voiceover/recording artist, host/television personality, and producer. Bleu is probably best known for his role as Chad Danforth in Disney's Emmy Award-winning High School Musical franchise. In 2021, Bleu starred in his debut Hallmark Channel movie Love, For Real playing the role of Marco Tate, a bachelor looking for love on a dating show who comes to realize not all of his bachelorettes are there with the same intentions. Also in 2021, he starred in the Lifetime Holiday movie, A Christmas Dance Reunion where he was reunited on screen with his former High School Musical co-star Monique Coleman.

Bleu was last seen on Broadway as Lucentio/Bill Calhoun in the Tony-nominated, 2019 revival of Kiss Me Kate for the Roundabout Theatre Company at the legendary Studio 54. He also headlined as Ted Hanover in the Tony-nominated production of Irving Berlin's Holiday Inn, winning him the Chita Rivera Award for Outstanding Male Dancer in a Broadway Show. Additional Broadway credits include: Godspell (Jesus) and In the Heights (Usnavi). Other stage highlights include Hairspray (Seaweed) and Mamma Mia! (Sky), both at The Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles. In 2018, he starred as Don Lockwood, the role made famous by Gene Kelly in The Muny's centennial season production of Singin' in the Rain as well as Billy Crocker in Anything Goes at Arena Stage in Washington, D.C. That year he was honored with the Entertainer of the Year Award from the Tremaine National Gala honoring his work in the dance industry. In 2023, Bleu performed at Howard University in Washington, D.C. for a Broadway Collections TV special called Black Broadway: A Proud History, A Limitless Future which aired on PBS during Black History Month.

Bleu's television credits include: Dynasty, Supergirl, Chicago Med, The Middle, The Fosters, Castle, Psych, Franklin & Bash, and Blue Bloods. He also partnered with Karina Smirnoff on the multi-Emmy Award-winning ABC hit Dancing with the Stars, placing a close second.

On the big screen, Bleu has starred in To Write Love on Her Arms (opposite Kat Dennings), Nurse 3-D, and The Monkey's Paw to name a few.

In February of 2022, Bleu appeared in Fox's four-part TV event The Real Dirty Dancing, a one-of-a-kind competition featuring celebrities reliving the most memorable moments from the classic film. Bleu and his competition partner, celebrity chef Cat Cora, came in first place after nailing the iconic "Baby" and "Johnny" lift.

In 2022, Bleu returned to some familiar territory by guest starring in the third season, and upcoming fourth season of the Disney+ series, High School Musical: The Musical: The Series. Bleu will play himself, star of the High School Musical franchise.

Bleu is the Chair of the National Advisory Board of the Looking Ahead Program, a division of the Entertainment Community Fund (formerly The Actors Fund) focused on helping professional young performers and their families thrive amid the unique challenges of working in the entertainment industry. He also dedicates himself to giving back through programs such as St. Jude's Children's Hospital, Starlight Children's Foundation, & the Make-a-Wish Foundation.

The Jimmy Awards[®]/ National High School Musical Theatre Awards[®] (NHSMTA[®]) impacts more than 140,000 students annually who participate in high school musical theatre competitions sponsored by professional theatres throughout the U.S.

Broadway Bridges[®] goal is to give every New York City public school student the chance to see a Broadway show before graduation. Since its launch in January of 2017, the program has brought over 90,000 students and chaperones to Broadway.

The High School Broadway Shadowing Program introduces New York City public high school students to behind-the-scenes careers in live theatre. Since the program began eleven years ago, more than 450 BIPOC students from 63 high schools city-wide have participated.

Careers.Broadway is a mobile-friendly website to help students and others learn about the thousands of non-performance career opportunities on Broadway and in theatres around the country.
